

SSCIP Third Annual Conference

University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, USA
November 13-15, 2009

Finding Gender in Childhood

---

Preliminary Program

Friday November 13th

5pm registration opens

6:30pm Conference Opening and Keynote Address

Alma Gottlieb, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

8pm Reception

Saturday November 14th

9am-10:30 Migrating Children

Dawn Hadley and Katie Hemer, University of Sheffield
Microcosms of Migration: children and early medieval population movement

April Kamp-Whittaker, University of Denver
Forging New Communities: children in Japanese internment camps

Shobana Shankar, UNICEF
Secluded Women and Wandering Children: Colonial religious encounters, contested spaces, and modern moralizing about migration

10:30-11:00 tea and coffee

11:00-12:30 Place, Space and Children

Katherine Huntley, University of Leicester

Putting Children on the Map: patterning children's behavior and misbehavior in graffiti from Roman Campania

Traci Ardren, University of Miami

With Silver Bells and Cockle-shells: engendering children among coastal shell middens of prehistoric Florida

Kathryn Kamp, Grinnell College

Children in Place; the Place of Children: a case study from the pre-Hispanic American Southwest

12:30-1:30 lunch

1:30-3:30pm Children Written in Texts

Bronagh Ní Chonail, University of Glasgow

Consideration and Contention: the depiction of the child in medieval Irish and Welsh law

Anthony Krupp

Bayle's Children: Figures of Childhood in Pierre Bayle's Theory of Toleration

Sally Crawford, University of Oxford

"Our race had its childhood": Victorians, prehistory and perceptions of childishness

Mary Claire Martin, University of Greenwich

Discourse and Experience: disabled children in nineteenth century Britain

3:30-4:00 tea and coffee

4:00-5:00 Children's Bodies

Bernadette M Manifold, University of Reading

The Taphonomy Paradox: the preservation of infant and child skeletal remains from British archaeological sites

María Cecilia Lozada, University of Chicago

Andean Life Transitions: a bioarchaeological perspective of children and childhood among the Chiribaya of southern Perú

Sunday November 15th

9am-10:30 Engendering Maya Childhoods

Joaquín A. Hidalgo Gutiérrez, University of Yucatán

Le k'ichpan chan x-ch'u'upalo'ob yeetel le k-kelem chan xi'ipalo'ob (The Little Girls are Pretty and the Little Boys are Strong): materializing ancient Maya gendered childhood through iconography of the Classic period (250 -900 A.D.)

Lilia Fernandez Souza, University of Yucatán

Ritual, Gender and Childhood in Yucatan: a conjunctive approach

Pamela Geller, University of Miami

Recycling Souls: ancestors, children, and the Maya

10:30-11:00 tea and coffee

11:00-12:30 Helping, Health, and Children

Simon Mays, English Heritage

The Effects of Mediaeval Breastfeeding Practices on the Health of Mothers and Infants: a study from the deserted village of Wharram Percy, England

Marta P. Alfonso-Durruty & Jennifer L. Thompson, College of William and Mary

Little Helping Hands: towards a bioarchaeological perspective of childhood's social construction

Eileen M. Murphy, Queen's University Belfast

Juvenile Health in Iron Age Southern Siberia: the impact of Xiongnu expansion on the children of Aymyrlyg

12:30-1:30 lunch

2:00 conference closing and departures